

Resolution of the 169th Czech Rectors Conference Presidium Meeting

Prague, 6 April 2021

Czech Rectors Conference (CRC) Presidium adopted on its 169th Meeting the following resolution:

1. CRC agrees with the proposal of the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports management to start full-time teaching in the last years of practically oriented study programs as of 19 April 2021. CRC draws attention to the need for proper studies completion in these study programs and for the existence of a public interest in staff reinforcement in a number of strategic areas, including medical and healthcare infrastructure.
2. CRC also highly appreciates the long-term conceptual work of the current management of the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, the above-standard level of communication of all significant steps with higher education representatives and supports its successful efforts for strategic management in tertiary education.
